J-1 Visa: Foreign Residency Requirement:

The "J" visa is for educational and cultural exchange programs designated by the U.S. Department of State. The "J" exchange visitor program is designed to promote the interchange of persons, knowledge, and skills in the fields of education, arts, and sciences. All "J" exchange visitors who participate in programs that are financed in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by an agency of the U.S. Government or by the exchange visitor's government, are subject to the Foreign Residency Requirement (two year home residency requirement).

All Fulbright grantees must enter the U.S. on an exchange visitor visa (J-1), which requires that the individuals return to Sweden upon completion of their academic projects. Fulbright grantees are not "...eligible to apply for an immigrant visa, or for permanent residence, or for a nonimmigrant visa under section 101(a)(15)(H) or section 101(a)(15)(L) until it is established that such person has resided and been physically present in the country of his nationality or his last legal permanent residence for an aggregate of at least two years following departure from the United States.
